

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the future civilization and democracy of this nation depends upon our children, and

WHEREAS, it is our duty to see that our children are prepared to meet this responsibility; and

WHEREAS, there are many factors in our country today which might tend to deprive our children of adequate health needs,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 1941, CHILD HEALTH DAY, a time when serious deliberations of all those concerned in the health and welfare of children should be given to the problem of providing the best possible conditions under which children live, so they may develop physically, mentally, and spiritually and become citizens of whom we may well be proud.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 1st day of April, 1941.
